The front aspect enjoys a pleasant degree of privacy, enhanced by the established rose beds and well-stocked flower borders within the garden.

The second reception room (3.78m x 4.22m) can be accessed from both the entrance hall and the first reception room, creating a flexible flow throughout the ground floor. This room also benefits from a bay window overlooking the rear garden, with delightful long-distance views towards Pendle Hill. Like the first reception room, it offers excellent versatility and could serve as a main living area or a formal dining room.

A rear passageway leads to the utility room (2.30m x 1.92m), which houses the boiler and an external sink, along with a separate storeroom (former coal store). A rear door provides convenient access to the garden and driveway—ideal for day-to-day use and unloading shopping.

To the first floor, bedrooms two and three are located at the front of the property. Bedroom three (3.35m x 2.81m) is well-suited as a child's bedroom, home office, or guest room.
