LOCATION - CHURCH MINSHULL

Church Minshull is essentially rural in character & a picturesque 17th Century black & white Cheshire village which is situated alongside a Roman crossing point on the River Weaver just off the A530 Nantwich to Middlewich Road. Church Minshull makes a delightful base in which to live, whether in retirement, or, if requiring to commute, the village is within easy reach of Nantwich and Crewe both about 5 miles distant. Crewe railway station offers a 1hr 30min Intercity rail service to London Euston. Leighton Hospital is 2 miles. Winsford 4 miles and Tarporley with a full range of village amenities is some 9 miles to the West. Northwich is 10 miles north and the City of Chester lies some 20 miles to the West. Junctions 16 (South) and 18 (North) on the M6 motorway lies about 10 miles to the East, facilitating commuting to Manchester and The Potteries. Manchester International Airport is less than 1 hrs drive to the north via the M6 and M56 and offers the gateway to Europe and beyond with schedules flights to most major cities of the World. The Village Church St Bartholomews was rebuilt in 1702 and contains the vault of Field Marshall George Wade - Commander of the Kings Army during the 1745 Jacobite rebellion. John Milton, the poet married Elizabeth Minshull in 1660 who lived opposite the church in one of the oldest surviving properties, Church farm, with its traditional magpie porch jutting out on pillars. The Badger Inn Public House, built in the 18th Century is located next to the Village Church and offers a wide range of traditional beers, a broad selection of wines, fresh food and accommodation.

NANTWICH

Nantwich is a charming market town set beside the River Weaver with a rich history, a wide range of speciality shops & 4 supermarkets. Nantwich in Bloom in November 2015 was delighted to have once again scooped the prestigious Gold award from the Britain in Bloom competition. In Cheshire, Nantwich is second only to Chester in its wealth of historic buildings. The High Street has many of the town's finest buildings, including the Queen's Aid House and The Crown Hotel built in 1585. Four major motorways which cross Cheshire ensure fast access to the key commercial centres of Britain and are linked to Nantwich by the A500 Link Road. Manchester Airport, one of Europe's busiest and fastest developing, is within a 45 minute drive of Nantwich. Frequent trains from Crewe railway station link Cheshire to London-Euston in only 1hr 30mins. Manchester and Liverpool offer alternative big city entertainment. Internationally famous football teams, theatres and concert halls are just some of the many attractions.
