PRICE GUIDE £175,000

A very well presented two bedroom apartment, located on Binswood Avenue, North Leamington. The property is within walking distance of bus stops and the town centre.

This particular apartment has been lovingly improved by the current owner and has a modern bathroom and kitchen. The apartment benefits from a very light and airy feel with the main reception area having four windows in total.

Another benefit is the location within the complex, top floor. Also located right at the end of the hallway, so less passing by.

Oakfield House is a purpose built development of retirement apartments for the over 60's, being conveniently sited close to the town centre and all amenities. The development is surrounded by pleasant communal grounds and provides an excellent range of communal facilities associated with retirement living including a guest suite and an on-site manager. Specifically designed for the over 60's, Oakfield House has proved to be very popular.

Front

Oakfield House is accessed from Binswood Avenue, leading to the communal secure front entrance. This apartment is located on the third floor.
