The Property

The Old Laundry is a beautiful and unique property, located in the South Oxfordshire hamlet of Catslip. Originally built as the laundry for the Joyce Grove Estate, it has since been converted into a characterful and welcoming family home.

The property has been thoughtfully extended by the current owners to provide flexible living space. Most of the accommodation is arranged on the ground floor, with potential for an independent annexe on one side. A centrally positioned kitchen and living room separate two double bedrooms and a bathroom at the opposite end. Upstairs, an impressive principal bedroom suite includes a dressing room and an en suite shower room.

The Old Laundry enjoys a woodland outlook to the front and benefits from driveway parking for several vehicles, along with a single garage. To the side of the front door, steps lead down to a cellar, ideal for storage or potential conversion. At the rear, the private, well-maintained garden is enclosed by mature hedging and includes a paved terrace extending across the back of the house.

Services

Mains water, electricity and drainage.
South Oxfordshire District Council: Band E.
EPC Rating E.

Location

The property is located on a quiet lane in Catslip, near the vibrant village of Nettlebed, which offers a strong sense of community centred around its excellent primary school. Local amenities include a popular pub, creamery, The Cheese Shed café, a folk club, and a delicatessen.

The village benefits from public transport links to nearby towns and lies within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), surrounded by a network of footpaths and bridleways that offer easy access to the stunning countryside. Mainline rail services to London, Bristol, Oxford and beyond are available from Reading.
