The Property

This pretty period cottage is located within the conservation area of Henley-on-Thames and comprises an open plan ground floor sitting room divided into a sitting and a dining area by the staircase. A particularly fine feature of this room are the exposed original timber beams in the ceiling and walls. The full width kitchen is to the rear of the property and steps out into the garden. Upstairs there is a double bedroom, a single bedroom and the bathroom.

Outside, the rear garden has attractive paving, lattice fence borders and a very useful brick built garden store room to the rear.

The property qualifies for Resident's Parking Permit parking in front of the house.

Situation

Northfield End is an attractive residential area of Henley-on-Thames, an attractive and vibrant market town situated in beautiful and unspoilt countryside approximately 35 miles west of London. Saffron Cottage is within a level walk of the town centre with its excellent shopping and cultural facilities which include small independent shops as well as bigger names, a weekly market, multi screen cinema and a theatre. The town is world famous for the annual Royal Regatta held in July and hosts a renowned arts and music festival every summer. Henley, Huntercombe, Temple and Badgemore golf clubs are all close by and there is excellent walking beside the river and in the nearby Chiltern Hills. There is a good range of state and independent schools in the area.
