Located to the west side of Branton, it not only offers very easy access to the village centre but also to the superb beaches at Saunton & Croyde which are 3 miles away. These are a mecca for surfers and keen water sports enthusiasts and connected by a regular bus service

Branton is considered one of the largest villages in the country and it caters well for it's inhabitants with a wide range of amenities. These include primary and secondary schools, Medical Centre, churches, public houses, restaurants and a number of local shops and stores. There is a Tesco superstore to the edge of the village and the family run Cawthorne's store to the village centre.

The bus also connects to Barnstaple, the principle town in north Devon. Here there are a wider range of shopping facilities included Green Lanes Shopping Centre and out of town shopping at Roundswell. Leisure and social needs are met with a brand new Tarka Leisure Centre, Tarka Tennis Centre, Ten Pin Bowling, Scotts Cinema and The Queens Theatre.

There is access to the North Devon Link Road which offers a convenient route to the M5 motorway at junction 27. The Tarka train line runs south to Exeter which then has a direct route to London.
