Occupying a tucked away position within this choice coastal village is this roomy detached home which offers spacious and flexible accommodation. The light and airy rooms flow nicely and benefits oil central heating, UPVc double glazing and solar panel back up. The present owners have placed their own rustic style on the property but with a decorative overhaul, the character of the property can easily be changed to suit individual needs.

The property has been thoughtfully extended and there is excellent potential to easily create an annex suitable for a dependent relative or to accrue a good letting income. The storm porch provides shelter to enter the main hall which has the stairs to the first floor. There is a useful accessible wet room, ideal to de-sand after a day at the beach. The double aspect sitting room offers good space to relax. There are stripped wood floors and an attractive open fireplace with a red brick surround, hearth and wood mantle. A door then leads to the sun room which has a tiled floor and overlooks the garden. The large dining room is also double aspect and has a stripped floor. The kitchen/ breakfast room is the hub of the house and is over 7m long and has a great pantry.

The inner hall leads to the utility room & boiler room and then to the smaller living room. This is a lovely room which has a vaulted ceiling and a kitchen area with butler sink and slate drainers. This could easily form part of an annex as there is the 4th bedroom here and shower room off the small inner hall. To the first floor the main bedroom is 'L' shaped bedroom and has an en suite shower room, whilst there are 2 further bedrooms and a further shower room.

The property is approached via a long drive which offers parking for 4 cars. There is a garden area with summerhouse. To one side is a very usefull and long covered store area, whilst to the other side is access to the rear and a further covered area, ideal to hang washing at any time.

The rear garden is delightful and offers a good deal of privacy. There is a good size lower patio area ideal for BBQ's. Steps lead up to the lawn with many flower beds which are well stocked with plants and shrubs. A further patio looks down the garden. There are other areas to sit and enjoy the peace in this tranquil setting.

This is a wonderful opportunity to acquire an attractive and spacious family home which offers flexibility and income potential. Only when viewed can the property be fully appreciated and we recommend an early viewing to avoid disappointment.

This is a lovely and popular part of Croyde village which is quiet and comprises individual properties some of which, over the years, have been extended and enlarged. The lane winds its way up from the village centre past thatched cottages and private drives, however, the property is only a minutes walk from the village centre..

Croyde is considered one of the premier and choice coastal villages in the region and has a superb sandy beach. This is well known throughout the country and is a mecca for surfers and water sports enthusiasts from afar. The larger beach at Saunton Sands is close by and has a larger sandy beach whilst it also boasts a renowned golf club with 2 championship courses. Croyde has some very attractive thatched cottages and a good number of shops, pubs and restaurants. Furthermore, there is a post office/ stores and a garage. A regular bus service connects to Braunton, some 3 miles to the east. Here there is a Tesco superstore, Cawthorne's family store, a good number of restaurants, primary and secondary schools and coffee shops.

The bus route continues to Barnstaple, the principle north Devon town, a further 5 miles to the south east. This caters well for the area with the brand new Tarka Leisure Centre, Tarka Tennis Centre, Scott's cinema and The Queen's Theatre. There is good covered shopping at Green Lanes and out of town shopping at Roundswell. Easy access on to the North Devon Link Road offers an easy drive to the M5 motorway at junction 27. The Tarka rail line takes you to Exeter which then picks up a direct line to London Paddington.
