Braunton is a very sought after village standing 5 miles to the west of Barnstaple, which is the regional centre of North Devon. The property is within easy reach of the sandy beaches at Croyde and Saunton which are approximately 3 & 5 miles to the west. A regular bus service connects to these beaches whilst at Saunton there is also the renowned golf club with its two championship courses.

The village centre is within level walking distance and here a excellent range of amenities can be found. Not too far away are primary and secondary schools and Tesco's superstore. Within the village there are an excellent range of shops, restaurants, churches, public houses, a library and medical centre. Also close by is the Tarka Trail which connects into the South West Coastal Path and which offers many miles of superb coastal and estuary walks. This is ideal for dog walking and cycling. Barnstaple offers further social and shopping facilities with Green Lanes covered shopping in the centre and out of town shopping at Roundswell. There will be a new leisure centre which will soon be completed whilst there are other sports facilities including Tarka Tennis, Ten Pin Bowling and rugby and football grounds.

Some of North Devon's most splendid scenery surrounds Braunton whilst there are further beaches at Putsborough, Woolacombe and Lee Bay. This is within the more rugged North Devon coastline which continues round to Ilfracombe, Lynton and Lynmouth.

In all North Devon offers an excellent range of social and sports facilities, lovely countryside and beaches whilst the heart of Exmoor is within an hours drive away.
