We are delighted to offer to the market, The Thatches a delightful, typical Devon cottage which nestles beautifully within the sought after village of Heanton Punchardon. This is the first time in many years that this delightful home comes to the market and rarely do property such as this do so. Therefore, we recommend a viewing at the earliest opportunity to really appreciate the full nature of the cottage and to avoid disappointment.

As its name suggests, this thatched cottage is a fine Grade II listed property which has bright and well proportioned gas centrally heated rooms. The part eyebrow roof feature highlights the super arched windows which give the cottage its character. These are complimented internally by the internal shutters. You enter through the enclosed storm porch which has seating either side. This leads to the hall with its wide staircase to the first floor and doors to the dining room and sitting room. Both rooms are comfortable double aspect rooms and the dining room has a raised open fireplace. The rear hall has slate flooring and access to the rear parking, the bathroom and kitchen which is very well appointed and fitted with granite work tops, built in dishwasher and in set double sink bowls and drainer. The slate flooring continues into the very useful ground floor bathroom.

To the first floor there are 3 bedrooms. The main bedroom is double aspect and has built in wardrobes. The en suite shower room is Jack 'n' Jill with bedroom 3. There is excellent storage with a long but head restricted utility/ boiler room.

The boundary wall has a gate which opens to the front garden which is laid to lawn and opens to the side of the cottage. To the rear, there is vehicular access to the parking spaces which is to tarmac for easy maintenance. Here there is water and a former outside WC, now used as a useful store. The attached property, Monks Cottage, has the benefit of a pedestrian right of way.

In all, this is a wonderful opportunity to acquire a delightful Devon cottage which will make for a most comfortable home or as a holiday retreat where one can escape city life and enjoy the peaceful surroundings and clean air of this lovely north Devon village.
