Welcome to The Old Boathouse, ideally positioned in one of Braunton's most sought-after areas, East Hill. This charming two-bedroom detached home enjoys a unique reverse-level accommodation, allowing for wonderful elevated views. The property is offered for sale with the added benefit of no onward chain.

Upon entering the home, you are welcomed by a spacious entrance hall, with a convenient WC to the left and a practical workshop to the right, featuring double doors providing direct access to the road. There is also access to a cellar, offering excellent storage space. The ground floor accommodation comprises two well-proportioned bedrooms, including a generous master bedroom with en-suite facilities, built-in storage, and space suitable for bedroom furniture.

The first floor opens into a bright and spacious open-plan living area. At the top of the stairs, you are greeted by an attractive kitchen fitted with a built-in oven, electric hob, ample worktop space, and stylish shaker-style cupboards. This flows seamlessly into a dining area, perfectly positioned in front of a cosy log burner, and continues into a light-filled living room. Bi-folding doors open onto a sun deck, leading out to the garden which is perfect for entertaining guests.

The garden itself is a standout feature, thoughtfully arranged into various sections to make the most of its sunny aspect, and a well positioned patioed area with glass balustrade offering far-reaching views across Braunton towards Braunton Burrows and beyond. In addition, the garden includes a self-contained annex with its own bedroom, living area, kitchen, and bathroom. This exceptional outdoor space truly needs to be seen to be fully appreciated. On street parking is also available.

The property is truly unique and we would recommend a viewing without delay to appreciate this stylish home in full.
