Set by a country lane under a half mile from the main Barnstaple to Exeter road with Barnstaple about 6 miles to the north where these is also the North Devon Link road.

The property is a period stone cottage that needs some renovation/improvement.

There is a large garden up steps to the front where there are also some outbuildings and a gate into the adjoining paddock.

In an ideal world one would get planning to open up the field for off road parking and garage and "turn the house around" to take advantage of the superb views to the north.
