Outside

The beautifully landscaped communal gardens are a key feature of the development, carefully maintained and richly planted with an array of mature trees, shrubs, and seasonal plants. These gardens surround the building and provide several peaceful seating areas, including a private, shaded spot beneath a charming gazebo, covered with a flourishing Wisteria.

This particular apartment enjoys direct access from the living room onto a private patio and lawned area, framed by an attractive and well-established planted border, ideal for outdoor relaxation and enjoying the gardens in comfort.

The development is smartly enclosed with stone walling and wrought iron railings, adding both elegance and a sense of security. Residents benefit from a dedicated mobility scooter store with charging facilities, along with generous visitor parking bays located in the rear courtyard.

Lease Information
The apartment is held on the remainder of a 125-year lease that commenced in 1988.
