Set of a quiet narrow country lane to the village edge is this sloping grassy paddock surrounded by traditional Devon hedgebanks with views over parts of the village and countryside around.

Croyde has a good range of village facilities with various Inn's and Cafes and of course it's famous surfing beach and coastal walks around to Baggy Point and on around to Putsborough Beach and Woolacombe Bay, some 2 to 4 miles to the north and Saunton Beach with its famous golf course and backdrop of the Braunton Burrows system, 2 miles to the south.

Some 4 miles away is Braunton, a busy village providing an excellent range of local services, library, bowling green, primary and senior schooling and a variety of shops, cafes and restaurants.
