Overview

Set within the desirable College Park development, this modern 3-bedroom semi-detached home is an excellent first family home or investment opportunity.

Built around 9 years ago, it offers stylish interiors and a convenient location close to schools, shops and Bideford Town Centre.

The accommodation includes a bright lounge, a contemporary kitchen/diner with French doors to the garden, and a spacious master bedroom with en-suite. With UPVC double glazing and gas central heating, the property is efficient and comfortable year-round.

Outside, the east-facing rear garden provides a private space for relaxing or entertaining, while two allocated parking spaces sit to the front.

Well located for local amenities, commuter routes and North Devon's coast, this move-in-ready home is sure to attract strong interest – early viewing recommended.

Outside

Bideford is a historic market town on the River Torridge, offering a mix of independent shops, restaurants, and community spirit.

The Pannier Market and working quay reflect its heritage, while nearby towns such as Westward Ho!, Appledore and Northam provide access to beaches, outdoor pursuits and leisure facilities.

With easy links to the Atlantic Highway (A39) and regular bus services to Barnstaple and surrounding coastal towns, Bideford is both well-connected and a great base for exploring North Devon.
