Instow's maritime character is amplified by the presence of colourful fishing boats bobbing gently in the harbour. Boasting a glorious sandy riverside beach, backed by dunes, Instow is popular among families and water-sports enthusiasts alike.

The beach expands over 200 acres at low tide ideal for those of you that have four-legged friends. With its beautiful active estuary, golden sandy beach and thriving community, the village offers a plethora of award-winning restaurants, cafes, and a well-regarded local delicatessen, the village could be considered a 'foodie's' paradise.

It is also home to the popular Yacht club, as well as having access to the Tarka trail for walkers and cyclists and a pedestrian ferry to Appledore during the summer months too. There is a primary school in the village as well as convenient access to nearby secondary schooling and further education in the surrounding towns of Barnstaple and Bideford. There is also a village church and hall with frequent activities and contemporary events.
