The accommodation is entered through a useful porch, which opens directly into a generous and welcoming lounge featuring a fireplace and stairs rising to the first floor. Double doors connect the lounge with the kitchen/breakfast room, creating a sociable yet clearly defined living space. The recently upgraded kitchen is fitted with a stylish range of modern units and complementary work surfaces, with space for a dining table and a door providing access outside. A ground-floor cloakroom and useful storage cupboard complete this level.

On the first floor, the landing leads to two well-proportioned bedrooms and a recently upgraded shower room fitted with a large shower enclosure and contemporary suite. The principal bedroom benefits from built-in wardrobes, while bedroom two enjoys lovely views towards the estuary. An additional landing cupboard provides further practical storage.

Outside, the property enjoys attractive and manageable garden areas. The front is arranged with gravel and colourful established planting, while the enclosed courtyard to the rear provides a pleasant setting for pots, seating and outdoor relaxation.

Situation

Appletree Mews occupies a convenient position in the heart of Appledore, a highly regarded fishing village on the North Devon coast. Renowned for its colourful streets, maritime character and attractive quayside, the village offers an excellent selection of independent shops, cafés, galleries and welcoming pubs.

Scenic walks can be enjoyed beside the estuary and along the South West Coast Path, while the nearby village of Northam and the wider town of Bideford provide further shopping and everyday amenities. The sandy beach, dunes and championship golf course at Westward Ho! are also within easy reach, making Appledore an appealing setting for relaxed coastal living.
