Originally constructed circa 1865 as the prestigious United Services College, where the renowned author Rudyard Kipling was educated, Kipling Terrace and Court has since been thoughtfully converted into a collection of individual apartments. This Grade II Listed terrace, recognised for its architectural and historical significance, occupies a prominent elevated position within easy reach of the village amenities and enjoys spectacular views across Bideford Bay, Barnstaple Bay and out to sea.

Situated on the first floor, this charming apartment combines period character with modern comforts. Benefiting from gas-fired central heating, high ceilings and a wealth of original features, the property is beautifully presented throughout and an internal inspection is highly recommended to fully appreciate all that it has to offer.

The accommodation is accessed via a communal entrance and staircase leading to the first floor. The apartment itself comprises an entrance hall, a generously proportioned living room featuring an attractive fireplace and a bay window with window seat, perfectly positioned to take in the breathtaking coastal views. The kitchen is fitted with a range of units and incorporates an integrated oven and hob. There is also a well-appointed bathroom and two bedrooms, the principal bedroom enjoying the same stunning sea views as the living room.

To the front of the property there is a designated parking space, with further unrestricted on-street parking available nearby for residents and visitors.

Agent's Note:

The property is held on the remainder of a 999-year lease, which commenced on 7th July 1983, leaving approximately 957 years unexpired. A ground rent of £12 per annum is payable. In addition, there is a service charge of £150 per calendar month, which covers the maintenance and upkeep of the communal areas, together with the building insurance for the property.

Situation

Westward Ho! is one of North Devon's most sought-after coastal villages, renowned for its long stretch of golden Blue Flag beach, dramatic pebble ridge and the historic Royal North Devon Golf Club. The village offers an excellent range of local amenities and enjoys a vibrant community atmosphere.

Just a short drive away is the historic port and market town of Bideford, situated on the banks of the River Torridge, offering a comprehensive range of facilities including schools for all ages, a variety of shops, supermarkets, restaurants and leisure amenities. The picturesque fishing village of Appledore, with its charming narrow streets, colourful cottages and bustling quayside, is also within easy reach.

Barnstaple, North Devon's regional centre, is readily accessible via the A39 and North Devon Link Road. The town provides extensive shopping, business and commercial facilities, together with convenient access to the A361 and Junction 27 of the M5, connecting to the national motorway network.
