THE PROPERTY

Part of the historic fabric of Haslemere an extended grade II listed 3-bedroom period cottage offering charm with period features including off-road parking for three cars.

Dating back to the 1700s this character home with open storm porch and original features has been sympathetically extended to offer intimate and welcoming spaces perfectly located central to the heart of the community. In the living room there is a feature atmospheric focal fireplace with wood burning stove whilst adjacent the dining room is stepped down where it merges through to the dual aspect kitchen. The kitchen has a Rangemaster with 6 gas burners and twin electric ovens, Belfast sink, wood cabinetry, butcher block worktops, hand-glazed tile splash backs, and French doors directly opening out onto the patio/garden. First floor, all three bedrooms each have their own unique character with built-in cupboards whilst the family bathroom has an exposed stone wall, a tiled splash back, oak flooring, and a white suite.

Plan shown in the brochure represents the opportunity to add space/value on the ground floor by extending the kitchen/dining room into the garden. Outside the garden is mostly laid to lawn with the raised patio and mature laurel hedge on the rear boundary offering good privacy. To the front there is parking for three cars and road leading the town and train station. Hidden from view via the steps to end of the garden there is an additional strip of land that takes you to a secure gate which accesses the recreational open space (Haslemere Town Meadow) and to local shops.

SITUATION
