SITUATION

Guildford is a large and historic county town offering a comprehensive range of shopping, social, recreational & educational facilities and widely considered to be a very desirable place to live. The town is situated on the River Wey, the cobbled High Street paved with granite setts and is surrounded by countryside. Guildford still retains a high street market every Friday and Saturday with monthly farmers markets usually held on the first Tuesday of each month. The town offers a great selection of restaurants, pubs, bars and cafes plus independent and national retailers amongst its attractive streets. Guildford's mainline railway station provides a service to London Waterloo in approx. 40 minutes and there is also London Road train station. The A3 & A31 provide access to the South Coast and the M25 to central London & International airports. Sporting and recreational facilities are extremely well catered for at the Spectrum Leisure Centre and Surrey Sports Park. Guildford lies at the edge of the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, offering miles of walking, cycling and riding country. There is an excellent choice of both state and private schools in the area serving all age groups and furthermore, the highly acclaimed University of Surrey.
